

Contents

Foreword .....	ix
Introduction:
On Critical Examination and Apologetics .....	1
Chapter 1:
Apocalypticism, Heresy and Philosophy .....	35
1.1. Introduction .....	35
1.2. Mleccha and pāṣaṇḍa/pāṣaṇḍin in Brahmanical Apocalypticism .....	40
1.2.1. Introduction .....	40
1.2.2. The Doctrine of the yugas in the MDhŚ .....	41
1.2.3. The kaliyuga and its End in the MBh .....	41
1.2.4. The kaliyuga in the YP .....	50
1.2.5. Conclusion .....	53
1.2.6. The kaliyuga and its End in the Early Purāṇas .....	54
1.2.7. Kaliyuga and Heresiology in the ViP .....	57
1.2.8. Kaliyuga and Heresiology in the Mīmāṃsā .....	66
1.2.9. Conclusion .....	70
1.3. Indian Buddhist Apocalypticism .....	73
1.3.1. Introduction .....	73
1.3.2. The Timetables and the Causes of Decline .....	73
1.3.3. Monastic Degeneration and Early Mahāyāna .....	77
1.3.4. The Buddhist Appropriation of the kaliyuga .....	81

1.3.5. Narendrayaśas .....	85
1.3.6. Conclusion.....	89

Chapter 2:

Buddhist Esoterism and Epistemology .....	93
2.1. Introduction .....	93
2.2. Śaivism, Early Medieval India and the Rise of Buddhist Tantrism .....	96
2.2.1. Preliminary Remarks .....	96
2.2.2. Buddhist Tantrism as the Internalization of the Early Medieval Political Landscape .....	100
2.2.3. Buddhist Esoterism as an Adoption-cum-Adaptation of Śaiva Tantrism .....	106
2.2.4. Summary .....	113
2.2.5. Remarks on the Chronology of Early Buddhist Tantrism .....	114
2.2.6. Dharmakīrti and the Early History of Tantrism.....	120
2.2.7. Buddhist Hostility towards Śaivism in Early Buddhist Tantric Scriptures .....	136
2.2.8. Conclusion: Towards a New Modality of Mahāyānist Self-Assertion?.....	149
2.3. Buddhist Epistemology .....	154
2.3.1. Remarks on the Historiography of the Buddhist Episte- mological School.....	154
2.3.2. On the Buddhist Epistemologists' Self-Understanding.....	169
2.3.3. The Decline of Abhidharma Scholasticism and Inter- sectarian Polemics.....	174
2.4. Conclusion.....	189

Chapter 3:

Turning Hermeneutics into Apologetics.....	191
3.1. Introduction .....	191
3.2. Evaluative Rationality .....	193

3.2.1. The Epistemologists' Concept of yukti .....	193
3.2.2. yukti and āgama in Traditional Buddhist Scholasticism .....	196
3.2.3. Personal or Textual Authority? .....	201
3.2.4. Assessing Scriptures.....	210
3.2.5. Conclusion.....	218
3.3. Practical Rationality .....	219
3.3.1. The Epistemologists' Concept of prekṣā.....	219
3.3.2. Religious Practice as Rational Action .....	221
3.3.3. Certainty and Rationality.....	224
3.3.4. The Revised kāryānumāna Theorem .....	227
3.3.5. The Logic of Buddhist Gradualism .....	234
3.4. Conclusion.....	244

Chapter 4:

Nescience, Epistemology and Soteriology .....	247
4.1. Introduction .....	247
4.2. Nescience as Erroneous Cognition (mithyopalabdhi) .....	248
4.2.1. Nescience as Counter-Insight .....	248
4.2.2. Nescience, saṃvṛti, and apoha .....	255
4.3. Nescience as Personalistic False View (satkāyadrṣṭi) .....	266
4.3.1. The False View of Self as a Specification of Wrong Perception .....	266
4.3.2. Dependent Origination .....	278
4.3.3. Dharmakīrti's Sources for the Equation avidyā = satkāyadrṣṭi.....	293
4.4. Nescience, Inference, and the Path toward Salvation.....	298
4.4.1. Introduction .....	298
4.4.2. Perception and Insight.....	300
4.4.3. Erroneous Superimposition and Its Causes .....	306
4.4.4. Inference and Its Corrective Function .....	311

4.4.5. Inference and the Path .....	313
4.4.6. The cintāmayī prajñā .....	318
Abbreviations and Bibliography .....	329
Indices .....	371