OREA 1

WESTERN ANATOLIA BEFORE TROY

NEW Series!

BARBARA HOREJS – MATHIAS MEHOFER (Eds.)

OREA 1

WESTERN ANATOLIA BEFORE TROY PROTO-URBANISATION IN 4TH MILLENNIUM BC ?

PROCEEDINGS OF THE INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM HELD AT THE KUNSTHISTORISCHES MUSEUM WIEN
VIENNA, AUSTRIA, 21–24 NOVEMBER, 2012

BARBARA HOREJS,
MATHIAS MEHOFER (Eds.)

The newly launched publication series of the Austrian Academy of Sciences

OREA – Oriental and European Archaeology aims to create a broad platform for the dissemination of the results of science-based archaeological research covering prehistoric and early historic societies from the Middle East to Europe. By bringing together a wide array of authors this internationally peer-reviewed series promotes interdisciplinary scientific debate on a large geographic and thematic scale. The newly founded Institute for Oriental and European Archaeology (OREA) will provide the means for publication, open to archaeologists specialized in Europe, the Aegean, Anatolia and the Middle East.

Monographs, Conference Proceedings as well as Handbooks may be considered for publication.

Archaeologia Austriaca is a peer reviewed, print and electronic open access journal that is published on an annual basis. The journal includes articles, reports, special sections and reviews predominantly in German and English. Archaeologia Austriaca covers all periods from the Palaeolithic to modern times, which are subject to archaeological, anthropological and interdisciplinary investigations, including natural sciences application. Publication languages are mainly German and English. The journal is edited by a scientific board consisting of leading staff of the Institute for Oriental and European Archaeology of the Austrian Academy of Sciences OREA and the Institute of Prehistoric and Historical Archaeology of the University of Vienna. It is published by the Austrian Academy of Sciences Press.
