

Contents

Franz Adlgasser & Fredrik Lindström Editors' Introduction: Studying Habsburg Bureaucracy and Civil Servants	7
Fredrik Lindström The State and Bureaucracy as a Key Field of Research in Habsburg Studies	13
Gary B. Cohen The Austrian Bureaucracy at the Nexus of State and Society	49
Jonathan Kwan The Formation of the Liberal Generation in Austria, c. 1830-1861: Education, Revolution and State Service	67
Andrea Pokludová The Legally Trained Civil Servants in Moravia and Silesia 1848–1918	97
Martin Klečacký An Independent Judge in the Austrian Administration: The Example of Bohemia around 1900	109
Marion Wullschleger Running the Show in the Adriatic Provinces: The Last Three Austrian Governors in Trieste (1898–1918)	129
Judit Pál Research on Hungarian High Officials in the Dual Monarchy: The Case of Transylvanian Lord-Lieutenants	149

Julia Bavouzet A Prosopographical Survey of the High Civil Service Corps of the Ministries in the Hungarian Part of the Dual Monarchy	167
Heiko Brendel Bureaucrats at War: Konzeptsbeamte in the Austro-Hungarian Military Administrations in Poland, Serbia, Montenegro and Albania during the First World War	187
Therese Garstenauer The Conduct of Life of Austrian Civilian Government Employees in the First Republic	213
Peter Becker The Administrative Apparatus under Reconstruction	233
John Deak After “Bureaucratic Absolutism”: A Search for New Paradigms in late Imperial Habsburg History	259
Bibliography	275