

Table of Contents

MEDIEVAL BIOGRAPHICAL COLLECTIONS:

PERSPECTIVES FROM BUDDHIST, CHRISTIAN AND ISLAMIC WORLDS

GUEST EDITORS: DANIEL MAHONEY, DIARMUID Ó RIAIN AND GIORGIA VOCINO

Editorial Walter Pohl and Ingrid Hartl	2
Introduction Medieval Biographical Collections in Comparison Daniel Mahoney and Giorgia Vocino	3
INTRODUCTORY COMPARATIVE CHAPTERS
Compilation Strategies Daniel Mahoney and Diarmuid Ó Riain	12
Writing Strategies Reinier Langelaar, Giorgia Vocino and Veronika Wieser	23
Audience and Reception Rutger Kramer and Graeme Ward	36
CASE STUDIES
Many Lives, One Story: The Gesta Sanctorum Rotonensium and the Making of Redon Rutger Kramer	50
Biography and Hierarchy: The Tibetan Ruling House of Phag-mo-gru and the Singular Volume of the Rlangs (Rlangs-kyi-po-ti-bse-ru) Reinier Langelaar	75
Reading Jerome's De viris illustribus in the Post-Roman World: Cataloguing Community in Gennadius of Marseille and Frechulf of Lisieux Graeme Ward and Veronika Wieser	95
Shaping Community through Biographical Collections from South Arabia: A Comparison of Two Ṭabaqāt -works Johann Heiss	125
Compiling the Deeds of Salzburg Saints: The 12th-Century De episcopis Salisburgensibus and the Monastery of Admont Diarmuid Ó Riain	145
Obituaries in Service of the Rasūlid Sultanate in Yemen at the Turn of the 9th/15th Century Daniel Mahoney	175
Creating a Sense of Glorious Destiny. Mastery of Speech in the Libellus de Situ Civitatis Mediolani (Late 10th-Early 11th Centuries) Giorgia Vocino	195
CONCLUSION
Communities and Contexts: Concluding Thoughts on Medieval Biographical Collections Diarmuid Ó Riain	214