
CONTENTS

Lists of Maps, Tables, and Illustrations	9
Notes on Transcription	10
Abbreviations	11
Journals and newspapers	11
Abbreviations used in the Russian-language publications	12
Other abbreviations	13
Acknowledgements	15
 MARIA SIX-HOHENBALKEN and KHANNA OMARKHALI Yezidi Studies in the Late 19 th and Early 20 th Century	 17
PART I
 MARIA SIX-HOHENBALKEN (Vienna) Maximilian Bittner. Biographical Notes	 29
 KHANNA OMARKHALI (Berlin) In the Footsteps of Yezidi Scripture's Fever	 43
 KHANNA OMARKHALI and MARIA SIX-HOHENBALKEN (Berlin and Vienna) Deported and Exiled Peacock Angels. Yezidi Sacred Objects. Between Concealment and Orientalism	 65
PART II
 GABY ABOUSAMRA (Beirut) Anastase Marie and Yezidi Studies	 85
 GÜLISTAN İBRAHİM (Paris) The Apostolat des Yesidis (1933) An anonymous text from the Saulchoir Archives	 95
 TEREZA AMRYAN (Yerevan) Some remarks on Yezidi Studies in the Russian Empire	 101
PART III
 ZEYNEP TURKYILMAZ (Potsdam) From Mountain Folks to Hâric-i Millet : Yezidis and the Ottoman Reforms (1830–1876)	 125
 SEMRAN CENGİZ (Aalborg) Representation of the Yezidis in the Late Ottoman Era	 149
 SEMRAN CENGİZ (Aalborg) The Kurdish Sipîkî Tribe in the 19 th Century: Conversion, Forced Resettlement and Exile	 163

PART IV

MARIA SIX-HOHENBALKEN (Vienna)

"I am from the Îsedizî Clan of the Sîpka Confederation."

An Oral History Account of Dispersal and Dispossession 181

KHANNA OMARKHALI (Berlin)

200 Years of Yezidi Oral History. Recollecting the Past in Songs 189

FAZIL MORADI (Hiroshima)

Modernity's Other: Yezidis as a Human Collective in 21st-Century Iraq 223

Selected Bibliography on Yezidis:

From the late 19th and early 20th centuries 237

Bibliography 241

About the Authors 281

Indexes 283